

មជ្ឈមណ្ឌលឯកសារកម្ពុជា

DOCUMENTATION CENTER OF CAMBODIA
Phnom Penh, Cambodia

DC-Cam Calendar of Events
July to September, 2017

Date/Place	Events/Significant Field Trips	Partners & Participants	Media Coverage	Brief Summary of Project
July 2017
July 5-10 Siem Reap, Anglong Veng, Preah Vihear	Anlong Veng Peace Center made a field trip to join CMAC meeting in Siem Reap and then hosted a student peace study tour and visited the Preah Vihear Temple.	CMAC and DC-Cam	N/A	Since its inception in 2014, the Anlong Veng Peace Center under the umbrella of the Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) works to promote reconciliation in the former Khmer Rouge stronghold Anlong Veng and other former KR areas after the civil war (1979-1998) and utilize Cambodia's peace process as a critical reflection for any ongoing conflict societies in the region. The Anlong Veng Peace Center would be a foundation to sustain Cambodia's peace and reflect the crimes that committed against nearly two million Cambodians from 1975-1979. First, by using the Anlong Veng community as a focal point, the prime focus of the Anlong Veng Peace Center is to create a favorable and transformative channel for a comprehensive historical understanding, dialogue, tolerance and reconciliation. Second, it sets to build itself into a leading institution to wage a sustainable peace at national and regional levels through historical research and education that suit socio-political and cultural contexts of each society.
July 5, 12, 19, 26 (4 days) Outskirt and province nearby Phnom Penh	Promote Accountability team members and some student volunteers have a regular field trip to interview former KR cadres and base people	DC-Cam	N/A	The Promote Accountability Project seeks to promote justice and a better historical understanding of the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) regime. In particular, we aim to shed light on the administrative workings of the DK regime and the roles and activities of lower-level personnel charged with implementing policies and directives of the Communist Party of Kampuchea (CPK).
July 25-26 5:30pm to 7pm Contemporary	"Don't Think I've Forgotten" and "The Jungle War"	DC-Cam	N/A	In the purpose of publicizing the documentary film related to Khmer Rouge and Khmer Culture, DC-Cam has come up with the idea of film screening, which allows the trainees to have a chance to explore more about Cambodia through the film.

Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education
July 25-27  National Institute of Education	DC-Cam hosted a university lecturer training. About 100 lecturers participated in this program.	Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sport and DC-Cam	Yes	The University Lecturer Trainings are designed to enhance the ability of the Cambodian teachers to teach the history of Democratic Kampuchea using a variety of teaching approaches. The trainings have a dual focus of developing the teachers' understanding of the history as well as facilitating their capacity in student-centered learning approaches. The training (3 full days) encompass lecture, group discussion, and practical exercise, with a particular emphasis on having the teachers practice their use/delivery of the genocide education materials with peers.
August 2017
August 2, 16, 23, 30 (4 days)  Outskirt and province nearby Phnom Penh	Promote Accountability team members and some student volunteers have a regular field trip to interview former KR cadres and base people	DC-Cam	N/A	The Promote Accountability Project seeks to promote justice and a better historical understanding of the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) regime. In particular, we aim to shed light on the administrative workings of the DK regime and the roles and activities of lower-level personnel charged with implementing policies and directives of the Communist Party of Kampuchea (CPK).
August 8-9  Contemporary Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education	"Village History" training for DC-Cam Staff	DC-Cam	N/A	In the purpose of strengthening the capacity of DC-Cam staff in research and to fulfill the goal of Genocide Education Project which is to publish the village history, DC-Cam has invited Dr. Lisa to provide training on research methodology, mainly focusing on Village History Research, to its staff members. This training took 2 full days and introduced essential research techniques and actual interview practice.
August 10  White Elephant Resort, Phnom Penh	Anlong Veng team leader has provided a talk to a group of 73 peace corps student on the history of Democratic Kampuchea	DC-Cam and Peace Corps	N/A	As part of the Public Information Room, DC-Cam provides lecture or talk to the local and foreign visitors, including student group, tour group, scholar or researcher. This is to publicize about its work and the History of Democratic Kampuchea as well as other genocide related topic.

August 14-19 Contemporary Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education	DC-Cam will conduct its Pre-service teacher training in Phnom Penh with 10 Pre-Service history teachers from Battambang Regional Teacher Training Center (RTTC).	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport, DC-Cam and Battambang Regional Teacher Training Center	N/A	This training is about six-day training. Trainees will receive both content of DK history and teaching methodology. In addition, the trainees will have more times to do their teaching practice and to have some visits at TSL, Cheung Ek, National Museum, and the Royal Palace.
August 22-25 Anlong Veng, Oddar Meanchey	Anlong Veng Peace Center hosted a visit by two different groups: R2P National Group and Chulalongkorn research fellows, who will visit the Peace Center and historical sites.	DC-Cam and Rotary Peace	N/A	Since its inception in 2014, the Anlong Veng Peace Center under the umbrella of the Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) works to promote reconciliation in the former Khmer Rouge stronghold Anlong Veng and other former KR areas after the civil war (1979-1998) and utilize Cambodia's peace process as a critical reflection for any ongoing conflict societies in the region. The Anlong Veng Peace Center would be a foundation to sustain Cambodia's peace and reflect the crimes that committed against nearly two million Cambodians from 1975-1979. First, by using the Anlong Veng community as a focal point, the prime focus of the Anlong Veng Peace Center is to create a favorable and transformative channel for a comprehensive historical understanding, dialogue, tolerance and reconciliation. Second, it sets to build itself into a leading institution to wage a sustainable peace at national and regional levels through historical research and education that suit socio-political and cultural contexts of each society.
August 25-27 Contemporary Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education	Documentary film making workshop by School of Slow Media	DC-Cam and School of Slow Media	N/A	The Contemporary Arts Gallery is opened to the public. Everyone may use this space for their own educational purpose, individually or in group. All activities must be freed from political related issue.
August 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 (until September 3) Anlong Veng, Oddar	Anlong Veng Peace Center in collaboration with the Ministry of Tourism conducted its first-ever training for tour guides in the community.	Ministry of Tourism and DC-Cam	N/A	This training aims to equip the tour guide with the knowledge and methods for guiding their prospective tourists in the area of Anlong Veng, the Khmer Rouge Final Stronghold.

Meanchey
August 30, 31 (until September 3)  Contemporary Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education	Temporary Exhibition by Phare Ponleu Selpak	Phare Ponleu Selpak and DC-Cam	N/A	The Contemporary Arts Gallery is opened to the public. Everyone may use this space for their own educational purpose, individually or in group. All activities must be freed from political related issue.
September 2017
(Start from August 27) to September 3  Anlong Veng, Oddar Meanchey	Anlong Veng Peace Center in collaboration with the Ministry of Tourism conducted its first-ever training for tour guides in the community.	Ministry of Tourism and DC-Cam	N/A	This training aims to equip the tour guide with the knowledge and methods for guiding their prospective tourists in the area of Anlong Veng, the Khmer Rouge Final Stronghold.
(Start from August 30) to September 3  Contemporary Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education	Temporary Exhibition by Phare Ponleu Selpak	Phare Ponleu Selpak and DC-Cam	N/A	The Contemporary Arts Gallery is opened to the public. Everyone may use this space for their own educational purpose, individually or in group. All activities must be freed from political related issue.
September 6, 13, 27 (3 days)  Outskirt and province nearby Phnom Penh	Promote Accountability team members and some student volunteers have a regular field trip to interview former KR cadres and base people	DC-Cam	N/A	The Promote Accountability Project seeks to promote justice and a better historical understanding of the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) regime. In particular, we aim to shed light on the administrative workings of the DK regime and the roles and activities of lower-level personnel charged with implementing policies and directives of the Communist Party of Kampuchea (CPK).

September 8 Contemporary Arts Gallery, Building H, National Institute of Education	Official Launching of DW Genocide Education Website	DW and DC-Cam	N/A	The website which is to be launched presents information on the Khmer Rouge in a variety of media. Users will be able to navigate through historic film and audio material, rare photographs, and contemporary interviews with survivors and former Khmer Rouge cadres from across the country.
September 13-14 Anlong Veng, Oddar Meanchey and Preah Vihear	USAID (Jean-Marc and Polly Dunford) will visit the Anlong Veng Peace Center and some historical sites.	USAID and DC-Cam	N/A	Since its inception in 2014, the Anlong Veng Peace Center under the umbrella of the Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) works to promote reconciliation in the former Khmer Rouge stronghold Anlong Veng and other former KR areas after the civil war (1979-1998) and utilize Cambodia's peace process as a critical reflection for any ongoing conflict societies in the region. The Anlong Veng Peace Center would be a foundation to sustain Cambodia's peace and reflect the crimes that committed against nearly two million Cambodians from 1975-1979. First, by using the Anlong Veng community as a focal point, the prime focus of the Anlong Veng Peace Center is to create a favorable and transformative channel for a comprehensive historical understanding, dialogue, tolerance and reconciliation. Second, it sets to build itself into a leading institution to wage a sustainable peace at national and regional levels through historical research and education that suit socio-political and cultural contexts of each society.
September 13-15 (subject to be changed) Battambang Province	DC-Cam will conduct its Pre-service teacher workshop in Battambang with 172 Pre-Service teachers from Battambang Regional Teacher Training Center (RTTC).	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport, DC-Cam and Battambang Regional Teacher Training Center	Yes	The workshop will be three days with all pre-service teachers who specializes other subjects beside history subject. Attendants will receive 1) The raise of KR; 2) duration of KR; 3) the fall of KR; 4) the importance of studying KR history; 5) the definition of genocide; and 6) survivor story by KR victims.
September 25-27 (subject to be changed) Prey Veng Province	DC-Cam will conduct its Pre-service teacher workshop in Prey Veng Province with Pre-Service teachers from Prey Veng Regional Teacher Training Center (RTTC).	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport, DC-Cam and Prey Veng Regional Teacher Training Center	Yes	The workshop will be three days with all pre-service teachers who specializes other subjects beside history subject. Attendants will receive 1) The raise of KR; 2) duration of KR; 3) the fall of KR; 4) the importance of studying KR history; 5) the definition of genocide; and 6) survivor story by KR victims.
September 26-29	Anlong Veng Peace Center host a visit of	DC-Cam	N/A	Since its inception in 2014, the Anlong Veng Peace Center under the umbrella of the Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) works to promote reconciliation in the

Anlong Veng, Oddar Meanchey	students to the Peace Center and historical sites as part of peace and human rights study tour.			former Khmer Rouge stronghold Anlong Veng and other former KR areas after the civil war (1979-1998) and utilize Cambodia’s peace process as a critical reflection for any ongoing conflict societies in the region. The Anlong Veng Peace Center would be a foundation to sustain Cambodia’s peace and reflect the crimes that committed against nearly two million Cambodians from 1975-1979. First, by using the Anlong Veng community as a focal point, the prime focus of the Anlong Veng Peace Center is to create a favorable and transformative channel for a comprehensive historical understanding, dialogue, tolerance and reconciliation. Second, it sets to build itself into a leading institution to wage a sustainable peace at national and regional levels through historical research and education that suit socio-political and cultural contexts of each society.
--	---	--	--	--

Prepared by Dara Vanthan, DC-Cam Deputy Director

This Calendar is subjected to add additional events during the course of implementing it.