

មជ្ឈមណ្ឌលឯកសារកម្ពុជា

DOCUMENTATION CENTER OF CAMBODIA

DC-Cam Calendar of Events
April-June 2013

Date/Place	Events/Significant Field Trips	Partners & Participants	Media Coverage	Brief Summary of Project
April 2013
April 1,3, 5, 8, 10, 12, 17, 19, 22, 24, 26 and 30 Tuol Sleng Museum	DC-Cam will provide history classes at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum at 14:00 P.M. (Monday and Friday), 9:00 A.M. (Wednesday).	Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts, Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, DC-Cam, general public, foreign visitors. Approximately forty people.	N/A	As part of its museum project, DC-Cam works in collaboration with the Cambodian Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts to preserve the sites of the killings and Khmer Rouge crimes, raise awareness about the consequence of the crimes, and prevent such crimes from happening in the future. To achieve these goals DC-Cam teaches classes on DK history in a room that was used to interrogate the victims of the same regime. The general public including students, KR survivors, and foreign visitors will benefit from this classroom.
April 3-5 Kampong Thom	The Public Village Forum team will travel to Kampong Thom province to hold a forum on the trials at the ECCC. The forum will also include a discussion of the pertinent issues from the hearing including DK history, human rights, democracy	Approx. 100 people including commune officials, teachers, students, and villagers, and ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea and other international media	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC's . This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings,

	and rules of law.			providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.
April 4 The Police Academy of Cambodia, Kandal	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) and Trial Observation team will hold an informative session with police officers at the Police Academy of Cambodia. Material about the ECCC and DC-Cam, including textbooks on DK history are provided.	The Police Academy of Cambodia, 100 police officers	Reaksmei Kampuchea	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University School of Law's Center for International Human Rights. The Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, the B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation, and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum support it. CTM uploads and stores webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings and provides news and expert commentary about the ECCC. For more details, please visit: www.cambodiatribunal.org.
April 5-13	DC-Cam's Director travels to Lyon, France to participate in a board meeting at the Syria Justice and Accountability Center (SJAC). The director will then travel onwards to the US to hold several screenings of DC-Cam's new documentary film A River Changes Course. The screenings will be held at the USAID office in Washington DC, Yale University in Connecticut, and Rutgers University,	SJAC, USAID, Rutgers University, and Yale University	N/A	The Tonle Sap River changes its course twice a year as the river of life flows in a perpetual cycle of death and rebirth, creation and destruction. Working in an intimate, verité style, filmmaker Kalyanee Mam (Director of Photography for the Oscar-winning documentary INSIDE JOB), spent two years following three young Cambodians as they struggled to overcome the crushing effects of deforestation, overfishing, and overwhelming debt. A breathtaking and unprecedented journey in New Jersey.			from the remote, mountainous jungles and floating cities of the Cambodian countryside to the bustling garment factories of modern Phnom Penh, A River Changes Course traces a remarkable and devastatingly beautiful story of a country torn between the rural present and an ominous industrial future.

April 7, 14, 21, 28 (Weekly program)	DC-Cam Community Radio Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine will be broadcasted on three local radio stations that cover Phnom Penh and most provinces across Cambodia. In April, the program will broadcast Episode 2, which provides an overview of how famines spread, destroy and kill people. It also covers the topic of how famine spread and killed in DK, and estimates the number of people killed.	-Radio National of Kampuchea (AM 918 KHz) at 9:00-9:30 a.m. and 7:30-8:00 p.m. -Battambang Radio Station (FM 103.25 MHz) at 8:00-8:30 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m. -Preah Vihear Radio Station (FM 99 MHz) at 7:30-8:00 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m. -Kampot Radio Station (FM 93.25 MHz) at 7:00-7:30 a.m. and 7:00-7:30 p.m.	N/A	As part of its ongoing Witnessing Justice Project, DC-Cam has launched a new radio program: Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine . This ten-part series will explore the issues of justice and memory within the context of the deadly famine that gripped Cambodia during the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) period from 1975-1979. The famine that killed one million people over three years is often largely ignored during discussions of transitional justice in modern Cambodia. This is primarily because the mass violence perpetrated by the Khmer Rouge regime fits neatly into existing understandings of international crimes. This is an unfortunate as famine is a uniquely universal experience for survivors of the DK period, and can provide a common ground for discussions about this dark period of Cambodian history.
April 9-19 Clark University, Massachusetts, USA	Genocide Education Project leader, Dy Khamboly, will give a speech on the "Challenges of Genocide Education in Cambodia" at the symposium, Policy and Practice: Pedagogy about the Holocaust and	Clark University, Massachusetts, US.	N/A	As of the 2010-11 academic year, the Ministry of Education has integrated DC-Cam's textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the

	Genocide , which is held at the Strassler Center of Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Clark University.			country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level.
April 17-June 13 Lowell High School, Lowell, Massachusetts, USA	Two DC-Cam staff members, Sin Sothida and Kim Sovannpany, will participate in a teaching internship at Lowell High School.	Lowell High School	N/A	The internship program will allow the staff members to learn about the American methodology of teaching social studies and genocide education. In the long-term this will help promote the Cambodia Ministry of Education's capacity to implement genocide education in Cambodian secondary schools.
April 19 Asia Europe University, Phnom Penh	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) and Trial Observation team will conduct an interactive session with students at the Asia Europe University. Materials about the ECCC and DC-Cam, including textbooks on DK history are provided.	Asia Europe University, 100 students	Reaksmei Kampuchea	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University School of Law's Center for International Human Rights. The Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, the B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation, and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum support it. CTM uploads and stores webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings and provides news and expert commentary about the ECCC. For more details, please visit: www.cambodiatribunal.org
April 22-25 ECCC	The Public Village Forum team will bring a number of selected KR survivors to attend the ECCC's substantive trial of Case 002. They will be provided updated information about the ECCC before they attend the hearing.	Approximately twenty villagers, and the ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC's . This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings,

				providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.
April 22-27 The National Institute of Education	Members of the Genocide Education Project will conduct a six-day training with pedagogical students at the National Institute of Education, Phnom Penh. The training session will focus on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) and teaching methodologies.	The National Education Institute, 100 pedagogical students	Reasmei Kampuchea and TV	As of the 2010-11 academic year, the Ministry of Education has integrated DC-Cam's textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979), into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level.
May 2013
May 3, 6, 8, 10, 17, 20, 22, 24, 27, 29 and 31 Tuol Sleng Museum	DC-Cam will provide history classes at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum at 14:00 P.M. (Monday and Friday), 9:00 A.M. (Wednesday).	Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts, Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, DC-Cam, general public, foreign visitors. Approximately forty	N/A	As part of its museum project, DC-Cam works in collaboration with the Cambodian Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts to preserve the sites of the killings and Khmer Rouge crimes, raise awareness about the consequence of the crimes, and prevent such crimes from happening in the

		people.		future. To achieve these goals DC-Cam teaches classes on DK history in a room that was used to interrogate the victims of the same regime. The general public including students, KR survivors, and foreign visitors will benefit from this classroom.
May 3 The American Intercon Institute, Phnom Penh	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) and Trial Observation team will conduct an informative session on the CTM with students at the American Intercon Institute , Phnom Penh. Materials about the ECCC and DC-Cam, including textbooks on DK history are provided.	The American Intercon Institute and 300 students	Reaksmei Kampuchea	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University School of Law’s Center for International Human Rights. The Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, the B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation, and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum support it. CTM uploads and stores webcasts of the ECCC’s live hearings and provides news and expert commentary about the ECCC. For more details, please visit: www.cambodiatribunal.org
May 4-5, 11-12, 18-19, and 25 Time: 8-11:30AM and 2-4:30PM DC-Cam	The Genocide Education Project will conduct a workshop on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , and teaching methodologies for secondary school teachers. The session will be held at the Documentation Center of Cambodia.	Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sports	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As of the 2010-11 academic year, the Ministry of Education has integrated DC-Cam’s textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level.
May 5, 12, 19, 26	DC-Cam Community Radio	-Radio National of	N/A	As part of its ongoing Witnessing Justice Project,

(Weekly program)	Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine will be broadcasted on three local radio stations that cover Phnom Penh and most provinces across Cambodia. In May, the radio will broadcast Episode 3 that concludes the discussion of the pathology of famine. The episode describes how people usually react to a famine starts, and compares this to how people reacted during the DK period.	Kampuchea (AM 918 KHz) at 9:00-9:30 a.m. and 7:30-8:00 p.m. -Battambang Radio Station (FM 103.25 MHz) at 8:00-8:30 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m. -Preah Vihear Radio Station (FM 99 MHz) at 7:30-8:00 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m. -Kampot Radio Station (FM 93.25 MHz) at 7:00-7:30 a.m. and 7:00-7:30 p.m.		DC-Cam has launched a new radio program: Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine. This ten-part series will explore the issues of justice and memory within the context of the deadly famine that gripped Cambodia during the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) period from 1975-1979. The famine that killed one million people over three years is often largely ignored during discussions of transitional justice in modern Cambodia. This is primarily because the mass violence perpetrated by the Khmer Rouge regime fits neatly into existing understandings of international crimes. This is an unfortunate as famine is a uniquely universal experience for survivors of the DK period, and can provide a common ground for discussions about this dark period of Cambodian history.
May 6-9 ECCC	The Public Village Forum team will bring a number of selected KR survivors to attend the ECCC's trial of Case 002. They will be provided with updated information about the ECCC before they attend the hearing.	Approximately twenty villagers, and the ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea and other international media	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC's . This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings, providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.

May 10 Malai, Banteay Meanchey	The Genocide Education Project will hold an inauguration ceremony for an anti-genocide slogan memorial at Malai High School in the Malai district, Banteay Meanchey province.	The Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sports, Approximately 500 students from Malai High School.	Reasmei Kampuchea and TV	As of the 2010-11 academic year, the Ministry of Education has integrated DC-Cam's textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level. The anti-genocide slogan memorial is part of DC-Cam's broader efforts to promote reconciliation and genocide prevention in Cambodia.
May 18 and 25 DC-Cam	For a period of eight weeks the Cambodia Law and Policy Journal (CLPJ) team will conduct training sessions on English legal vocabulary (from 10-12:00AM) and contract writing (from 12-2:00PM) for law students and lawyers. The sessions will be held on Saturdays.	Royal University of Law and Economics, approximately 30 students	N/A	Part of DC-Cam's Witnessing Justice Project, the Legal Education Program is dedicated to the transformation and professionalization of the Cambodian legal profession. The program is offered pro-bono to Cambodian law students and lawyers. The purpose of the program is to cultivate the core skills and competencies of a lawyer in problem-based scenarios that touch upon a range of practice areas, forums, and legal writing forms. While the foundation of the curriculum is legal writing, additional courses that focus on contracts and treaties, social justice, and research and advocacy will also be offered.

May 24 Royal University of Law and Economics, Phnom Penh	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) and Trial Observation team will conduct an informative session on the CTM with students at the Royal University of Law and Economics, Phnom Penh. Materials about the ECCC and DC-Cam, including textbooks on DK history are provided.	Royal University of Law and Economics and 300 students	N/A	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University School of Law's Center for International Human Rights. The Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, the B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation, and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum support it. CTM uploads and stores webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings and provides news and expert commentary about the ECCC. For more details, please visit: www.cambodiatribunal.org
May 20-23 Ratanakiri	The Public Village Forum team will travel to Ratanakiri province to hold a forum on the trials at the ECCC. The presentation will be followed by a discussion of important issues including DK history, human rights, democracy and the rule of law.	Approx. 100 people including commune officials, teachers, students, and villagers, and ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC's . This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings, providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.
May 31	DC-Cam Community Radio Voices of Genocide: Justice and the	Radio National of Kampuchea (AM 918	N/A	As part of its ongoing Witnessing Justice Project, DC-Cam has launched a new radio program:

Phnom Penh	Khmer Rouge Famine will have Professor Sambo Manara as the guest speaker for the program. The program will focus on the discussion of the history of the Khmer Rouge specifically the mass starvation during the Khmer Rouge regime.	KHz) From 11:00-12:00.		Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine. This ten-part series will explore the issues of justice and memory within the context of the deadly famine that gripped Cambodia during the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) period from 1975-1979. The famine that killed one million people over three years is often largely ignored during discussions of transitional justice in modern Cambodia. This is primarily because the mass violence perpetrated by the Khmer Rouge regime fits neatly into existing understandings of international crimes. This is an unfortunate as famine is a uniquely universal experience for survivors of the DK period, and can provide a common ground for discussions about this dark period of Cambodian history.
June 2013
June 1-2, 8-9, 15-16, and 22 Time: 8-11:30AM and 2-4:30PM DC-Cam	The Genocide Education Project will conduct a workshop on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979), and teaching methodologies for secondary school teachers. The session will be held at the Documentation Center of Cambodia.	Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sports	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As of the 2010-11 academic year, the Ministry of Education has integrated DC-Cam's textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979), into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level.

				The anti-genocide slogan memorial is part of DC-Cam's broader efforts to promote reconciliation and genocide prevention in Cambodia.
June 1,8, 15, 22, and 29	For a period of eight weeks the Cambodia Law and Policy Journal (CLPJ) team will conduct training sessions on English legal vocabulary (from 10-12:00AM) and contract writing (from 12-2:00PM) for law students and lawyers. The sessions will be held on Saturdays.	The Royal University of Law and Economics, approximately 30 students	N/A	Part of DC-Cam's Witnessing Justice Project, the Legal Education Program is dedicated to the transformation and professionalization of the Cambodian legal profession. The program is offered pro-bono to Cambodian law students and lawyers. The purpose of the program is to cultivate the core skills and competencies of a lawyer in problem-based scenarios that touch upon a range of practice areas, forums, and legal writing forms. While the foundation of the curriculum is legal writing, additional courses that focus on contracts and treaties, social justice, and research and advocacy will also be offered.
June 5, 7, 10, 12, 14, 17, 19, 21, 24, 26, and 28 Tuol Sleng Museum	DC-Cam will provide history classes at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum at 14:00 P.M. (Monday and Friday), 9:00 A.M. (Wednesday).	Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts, Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, DC-Cam, general public, foreign visitors. Approximately forty people.	N/A	As part of the museum component, DC-Cam works in collaboration with the Cambodian Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts to preserve the genocidal crime site, raise awareness of the consequence of the crimes, and prevent such crimes from happening in the future. For this purpose, DC-Cam converts a room that used to be an interrogation room into a classroom for learning the DK history. The general public including students, KR survivors, and foreign visitors will benefit from this classroom.
June 2, 9, 16, 23 (Weekly program)	DC-Cam Community Radio Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine will be	-Radio National of Kampuchea (AM 918 KHz) at 9:00-9:30 a.m.	N/A	As part of its ongoing Witnessing Justice Project, DC-Cam has launched a new radio program: Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge

	broadcasted on three local radio stations that cover Phnom Penh and most provinces across Cambodia. In June, Episode 4 of the program will shift the focus of the program towards a more legal discussion. The circumstances under which a famine takes place will be discussed, and question will be posed – can a famine lead to genocide? Finally the famine during the DK period will be discussed within the context of genocide and explanation will be provided about why it is unlikely that a famine can be a genocide.	and 7:30-8:00 p.m. -Battambang Radio Station (FM 103.25 MHz) at 8:00-8:30 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m. -Preah Vihear Radio Station (FM 99 MHz) at 7:30-8:00 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m. -Kampot Radio Station (FM 93.25 MHz) at 7:00-7:30 a.m. and 7:00-7:30 p.m.		Famine. This ten-part series will explore the issues of justice and memory within the context of the deadly famine that gripped Cambodia during the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) period from 1975-1979. The famine that killed one million people over three years is often largely ignored during discussions of transitional justice in modern Cambodia. This is primarily because the mass violence perpetrated by the Khmer Rouge regime fits neatly into existing understandings of international crimes. This is an unfortunate as famine is a uniquely universal experience for survivors of the DK period, and can provide a common ground for discussions about this dark period of Cambodian history.
June 3-6 ECCC	The Public Village Forum team will bring a number of selected KR survivors to attend the ECCC's trial of Case 002. They will be provided with updated information about the ECCC before they attend the hearing.	Approximately twenty villagers, and the ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea and other international media	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC's . This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings, providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.

June 4-9 Pailin	Staff members of the PA project will travel to Pailin province to conduct interviews of the former KR cadres whose biographies are on file at DC-Cam as well as those who have been identified by former KR members living in the area. These interviews are important for both documentation purposes, and as sources of evidence for the ECCC's investigation.	Ministry of Interior, Commune Chief, village chief, and 40 former KR cadres	Reaksmei Kampuchea	The Promoting Accountability project (PA) aims at conducting an investigation about the low ranking cadres of the Khmer Rouge through interviewing, transcribing, filing and analyzing data collected. This research is expected to fill the gap between the justice provided for crimes committed by senior leader and low ranking cadre, and thereby contribute to the process of reconciliation in Cambodian society.
June 7 Royal University of Fine Arts, Phnom Penh	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) and Trial Observation team will conduct an informative session on the CTM with students at the Royal University of Fine Arts, Phnom Penh. Materials about the ECCC and DC-Cam, including textbooks on DK history are provided.	The Royal University of Fine Arts and 300 students	Reaksmei Kampuchea	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University School of Law's Center for International Human Rights. The Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, the B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation, and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum support it. CTM uploads and stores webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings and provides news and expert commentary about the ECCC. For more details, please visit: www.cambodiatribunal.org
June 14 Army Institute	Members of the Genocide Education Project will conduct a one-day training session at the Army Institute, located in Phnom Sruoch District, Kampong Speu Province. The session will focus on the book A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , and other subjects	The Ministry of National Defense, Army Institute, and 300 army students.	Reasmei Kampuchea and TV	As of the 2010-11 academic year, the Ministry of Education has integrated DC-Cam's textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education related to the genocide, crimes against humanity, and abuses committed during Democratic Kampuchea.			project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level. The anti-genocide slogan memorial is part of DC-Cam's broader efforts to promote reconciliation and genocide prevention in Cambodia.

June 21 The National Institute of Education, Phnom Penh	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) and Trial Observation team will conduct an informative session on the CTM with students at the National Institute of Education, Phnom Penh. Materials about the ECCC and DC-Cam, including textbooks on DK history are provided.	The National Institute of Education and 300 students	Reaksmei Kampuchea	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University School of Law's Center for International Human Rights. The Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, the B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation, and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum support it. CTM uploads and stores webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings and provides news and expert commentary about the ECCC. For more details, please visit: www.cambodiatribunal.org
June 24-26 Stung Treng	The Public Village Forum team will travel to Stung Treng province to hold a forum on the trials at the ECCC. The presentation will be followed by discussions on the pertinent issues from the hearing including DK history, human rights, democracy and the rule of law.	Approx. 100 people including commune officials, teachers, students, and villagers, and ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC's . This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings, providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.

--	--	--	--	--