July 2, 4, 7, 9, 11, 14, 16, 18, 21, 23, 25, 28, and 30 (13days) Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, Phnom Penh	DC-Cam will provide DK history classes at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum in Phnom Penh, at 14:00 P.M. (Monday and Friday), 9:00 A.M. (Wednesday).	Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts, Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, DC-Cam, general public, foreign visitors. 15-40 people	N/A	As part of its museum project, DC-Cam works in collaboration with the Cambodian Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts to preserve the sites of the killings and Khmer Rouge crimes, raise awareness about the consequence of the crimes, and prevent such crimes from happening in the future. To achieve these goals DC-Cam teaches classes on DK history in a room that was used to interrogate the victims. The general public that includes students, KR survivors, and foreign visitors will benefit from this class. For more details, please visit: http://www.cambodiasri.org/museum/tuol_sleng_genocide_museum_classroom.php
July 8-10 Kampong Thom Province	The Witnessing Justice's Public Village Forum team will travel to Kampong Thom province to hold a forum on the trials at the ECCC. The presentation will be followed by a discussion of important issues including DK history, human rights, democracy, and the rule of law.	Approx. 80 people including commune officials, teachers, students, and KR survivors.	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC. This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings, providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights. For more details, please visit: http://www.d.dccam.org/Projects/Living_Doc/ECCC_Tour_and_Field_Trip_Reports.htm

The museum will display a variety of exhibits, including photographs, selected documents, and films. A permanent exhibit, entitled “April 17,” will chronicle the day in 1975 when Khmer Rouge forces took power in Phnom Penh. Space will also be available for traveling exhibitions relating to other cases of mass human suffering. Our exhibits are already renowned and have been shown around the world. In addition to our local partnership with the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum in Phnom Penh, we have shown exhibits in Denmark, The Netherlands, and the United States. We also wish to have an area dedicated to “the Memory of Our Nation,” where visitors can go to honor the victims.
