October 2013
October 7, 9, 11, 14, 16, 18, 21, 25, 28, and 30  Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, Phnom Penh	DC-Cam will provide DK history classes at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum in Phnom Penh, at 14:00 P.M. (Monday and Friday), 9:00 A.M. (Wednesday).	Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts, Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, DC-Cam, general public, foreign visitors. 15-40 people	N/A	As part of its museum project, DC-Cam works in collaboration with the Cambodian Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts to preserve the sites of the killings and Khmer Rouge crimes, raise awareness about the consequence of the crimes, and prevent such crimes from happening in the future. To achieve these goals DC-Cam teaches classes on DK history in a room that was used to interrogate the victims. The general public that includes students, KR survivors, and foreign visitors will benefit from this class. For more details, please visit: http://www.cambodiasri.org/museum/tuol_sleng_genocide_museum_classroom.php
October 6, 13, 20, and 27  (Weekly program)	DC-Cam Community Radio Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine will be broadcasted on four local radio stations that cover Phnom Penh and most provinces across Cambodia.  In October, the program will broadcast Episode 8, which will discuss the Frank Case and new information from the ECCC about rice distribution.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• National Radio of Kampuchea (FM 105.75 MHz) at 9:00-9:30 a.m. and 7:30-8:00 p.m.</li> <li>• Battambang Radio Station (FM 103.25 MHz) at 8:00-8:30 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m.</li> <li>• Preah Vihear Radio Station (FM 99 MHz) at 7:30-8:00 a.m. and 4:00-4:30 p.m.</li> </ul>	N/A	As part of its ongoing Witnessing Justice Project, DC-Cam has launched a new radio program: Voices of Genocide: Justice and the Khmer Rouge Famine . This ten-part series will explore the issues of justice and memory within the context of the deadly famine that gripped Cambodia during the Democratic Kampuchea (DK) period from 1975-1979. The famine that killed one million people over a period of over three years is often largely ignored in discussions of transitional justice in modern Cambodia. This is primarily because the mass violence perpetrated by the Khmer Rouge regime fits neatly into existing understandings of international crimes. This is unfortunate because famine is a uniquely universal experience for survivors of the DK period and can provide a common ground for discussions about this dark period of Cambodian history. Kratie province	will hold a ceremony to mount an anti-genocide memorial at Preah Kosamak High School on December 12th. This is part of a larger project to mount memorials in all high schools across Cambodia. Two slogans that read, “Learning about the history of Democratic Kampuchea is to prevent genocide” and “Talking about experiences during the Khmer Rouge regime is to promote reconciliation and to educate children about tolerance and forgiveness” will be etched on a stone memorial that will be displayed in the schoolyard. Financing of the memorials comes from former students and DC-Cam. These memorials promote awareness and interest in KR history and the ECCC. The ceremony follows by the official distribution of DK history textbooks.	Education, Youth and Sports, teachers, and students (approximately 500)	Kampuchea /TV	textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979), into the official curriculum for secondary school students. We have already distributed 500,000 copies of the textbook to students around the country and aim to reach a total distribution of 1,000,000. Recently the Genocide Education project has launched a small forum with the goal of developing a more even understanding of Khmer Rouge (KR) history, and awareness of the importance of genocide education at the grassroots level. December 16th-18th Takeo province	The Public Village Forum team will travel to Takeo province to hold a forum on the trials at the ECCC. The presentation will be followed by a discussion of important issues including DK history, human rights, democracy and the rule of law.	Approx. 80 people including commune officials, teachers, students, and villagers, and ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea	As part of the larger Witnessing Justice Project, the Public Village Forum is committed to assisting Cambodians (especially rural dwellers, women and minority groups) to engage with the ECCC. This is done by facilitating the attendance of selected individuals at Court hearings, providing them with legal training before the hearings, and discussing current issues at the court. Those selected to visit the ECCC and historical sites will thereafter chair the public village forums in their respective home communities. Participants of the forum will listen to discussions on justice and related issues, have the opportunity to pose questions, exchange views and give their suggestions and insights.
