

My Personal Impression on DC-Cam Community Radio¹

My name is Din Veasna, I am 22 years old. I am a second year student majoring in sociology at the Royal University of Phnom Penh. I was born in Thma Reap village, Ponror commune, Rolea paear district, Kampong Chnang province. I now stay in Phnom Penh.

I think that DC-Cam community radio program “Voices of Genocide: Justice and Khmer Rouge Famine” is very beneficial for the younger generation to learn about the terrible conditions of genocide and famine under the Khmer Rouge in Cambodia. This information should be compiled for the younger generation to further learn about the genocide that took place in Cambodia.

Finally, I would like to say thank you to the Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) and wish the director and staffs happiness and success in all their work.

¹ Translated by Lorn Dalin; edited by Sreyneath Poole