

My Personal Reflection¹

My name is Phon Sophos, a second year student majoring in sociology at the Royal University of Phnom Penh. I appreciate the Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) for setting up the new program called “Voices of Genocide: Justice and Khmer Rouge Famine” which younger generations like me can assess and learn more about what happened during the Khmer Rouge time, particularly the issue of genocide and famine. This program is very beneficial to all the learners like me in gaining more knowledge with usable sources that reflects the real views during the Khmer Rouge regime.

All in all, I would like to ask DC-Cam to work harder in collecting and compiling new data regarding the Khmer Rouge, spreading it on the radio, which is very good for illiterate people.

¹ Translated by Lorn Dalin; edited by Sreyneath Poole