

APRIL 17, 1975 GENOCIDE IN CAMBODIA

From 1975 to 1979, the Khmer Rouge led Cambodia into tragedy... causing the deaths of over 2 million people. Although millions were killed, millions more survived to tell their story. The perpetrators of these crimes also survived as well.

*Children at Angkor Watt.
After the collapse of the Khmer Rouge regime on 7 January 1979, hundreds of thousands of children were left orphaned.
Photo: DC-Cam Archives.*

THE DOCUMENTATION CENTER OF CAMBODIA • DCCAM.ORG
SEARCHING FOR THE TRUTH: MEMORY & JUSTICE